

GOOD PROGRESS IN SCHLEY INQUIRY

his instructions were contained in the memorandum handed him to be delivered to Admiral Schley, which was read to him.

In response to a request from the Judge Advocate, Lieutenant Hood related the conversation he had had with Admiral Schley after delivering the orders, saying that he (witness) had told the admiral that it was Admiral Sampson's wish that the flying squadron should proceed immediately to Santiago, as his information was very positive. His statement was as follows:

"Commodore Schley read the dispatches and then, turning to me, said: 'Captain, Admiral Sampson wishes me to go to Santiago. I cannot do it.' I told Commodore Schley that the admiral certainly expected the squadron to leave the instant I arrived. Commodore Schley then said, in nearly these words: 'I am not at all satisfied that the Spaniards are not here in Santiago.'"

Sampson's Request Refused.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—In the Schley court, at 2:30 Judge Advocate Lecky read a letter from Admiral Sampson, dated at Lake Sunapee, N. H., September 2nd, asking that Messrs. Stanton and Campbell be allowed to represent him in the case. The court decided that they could not appear.

COLONEL BAIRD VERY ILL.

Will Probably Not Live to Return to Hawaii Again.

Colonel John C. Baird, United States District Attorney for Hawaii, who sailed yesterday for the mainland, will, in the opinion of his most intimate friends, probably never live to return to Honolulu again. He is suffering from a most dangerous spinal trouble, in addition to a general collapse. His physicians informed him on Tuesday that he could not live thirty days if he remained in Honolulu, and that his only chance was in a trip to a more bracing climate.

Colonel Baird arrived here a little more than a year ago from Cheyenne, Wyo., which has long been his home. In Honolulu he maintained a former reputation for having principles and contending for them under all conditions and circumstances. "I never knew Mr. Baird until I met him on the steamer for Honolulu," says Judge Este, "but I must say that I never met a man in my life who, on short acquaintance, impressed me more favorably. Mr. Baird is a man of principle; and having a principle, he will stick to it to the end. I like that in a man. Should I lose him from my court it would be a matter of the deepest personal regret."

Kitchin will make an address and a number of hymns will be sung by the assemblage. One of the French, principal of the school, will by the Rev. Hiram Bingham, will lay the corner stone, which will conclude the program, except for the benediction, which will be pronounced by the Rev. Hiram Bingham.

AMUSEMENTS.

The last performance of "The Belle of New York" was given by the Lilliputians last night at the Opera House, a fair audience being in attendance.

The little folks, for the third time, delighted appreciative opera-goers with their charming production of the pretty opera, which is particularly adapted to show the remarkable talent of the rare gathering of diminutive devotees of the musical stage. The orchestra was somewhat better last night than at the previous performances, the improved music detracting less from the merit of the production.

ANARCHIST EDITOR ARRESTED.

To Be Prosecuted for Publishing Notices of a Lottery.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Sept. 27.—John Ciancilli, the proprietor of L'Aurore, the Anarchist paper published here, which floated over the assassination of President McKinley, was arrested here today by United States Marshal St. Claire of Streator. Postoffice Inspector B. P. Gilbert was here a few days ago and worked up the case. He then returned to Chicago and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Ciancilli. The latter will be arraigned before United States Commissioner H. H. Dicks this afternoon on a charge of violating the postal laws by publishing lottery notices. There is said to be no law under which he can be prosecuted for the anarchistic language published in his paper, but the authorities state that the other charge will be pushed vigorously.

For a Memorial Arch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The movement to erect a McKinley memorial arch in this city is attracting considerable attention in art circles. Frederick Diehlman, president of the National Academy of Design, is particularly interested and says the movement would lead to the creation of a splendid work of art in New York.
